

RECEIVED

OCT 31 2018

WESTFIELD CITY CLERK

Westfield
CULTURAL COUNCIL

Tuesday, October 9, 2018

Westfield City Hall 59 Court Street Room 315

Attendees:

Becky Blackburn (scribe)
Morgan Drewniany (member)
Barbara James (member)
Kathy Martin (member)
Candy Pennington (Treasurer)
Holly Robbins (member)
Patricia Steele-Perkins (member)
Barbara Trant (member)

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m.

Public Participation:

Cindy Harris came in to say she knew there were several seats open on the Council and that she would be looking for any applicants and fast tracking them when she saw them.

This was the last meeting for members Kathy Martin and Barbara Trant. There was discussion of the rest of the Council and how many seats would be open in the near future. Chair Morgan Drewniany said she would contact City Hall for the term expiration dates as there was some question as to the accuracy of the website.

Old Business:

Minutes were reviewed from the September meeting and Barbara Trant moved to accept, Holly Robbins seconds.

Treasurer's report is reviewed. Candy Pennington points out that one of the Grantees, Pine Hill Cemetery, underspent their grant on their program but incurred an unexpected expense of $145 in the form of a Porta-Potty. Kathy Martin moves to accept and reimburse the additional expense, Morgan Drewniany seconds.

Barbara Trant moves to approve Treasurer's report, Pat Steele-Perkins seconds.

New Business

Panel books should be available the first 2 weeks of November, Morgan will notify the Council when they are out.

Discussion on the emphasis needing to be on recruiting for the Council. There are many people going off in the next 6 months. Morgan Drowniany will check with the City Clerk for a swearing in date.

7:37 move to adjourn

